

Canadian Naturist Creed

I believe:

In naturism as a way of life founded on mutual respect;

In values of freedom, acceptance, and equality;
That being nude is not disorderly, offensive or obscene,

But simply a natural, authentic way of being,
And a peaceful form of individual expression;

That decency is measured by a person's conduct and not their attire;

That these convictions, along with others who share them,

Are a fundamental right under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms,

And deserve to be recognized as a genuine part of our Canadian heritage.
